REPORT.

The Children's Country Week Association, in this its Eighth Annual Report, would thank its generous contributors for enabling it again to enlarge its work.

During the past summer this Association sent into the country 3070 persons for visits, averaging nine days each. Of these 154 were adults, who either accompanied their sick children or were themselves invalids.

Free invitations were given to 233 persons, and beside these over 15,000 were sent on day excursions to the Park, the Sanitarium, and on the rivers. Permanent homes were found in the country for 12 persons.

The receipts amounted to $8,919.94, and the expenditures to $9,262.84, of which $127.62 were expended for clerical services in the office.

The names of 5142 persons were entered on the books of the Association during the past summer, of whom 2072 were denied the much needed rest and change because we had not sufficient money to send them into the country.

The limited number of invitations given to beneficiaries by persons living in the vicinity of Philadelphia is a discouraging feature of this work, and we hope yet to arouse the interest of these good people in the needy little ones of our city.

Great care is taken to send good children to fill invitations, and we seldom have complaint from entertainers. Invitations should be sent to the office of the Association, in writing, at least ten days before the guests are expected, and careful directions should be given as to the age and sex preferred.

Boarding houses on farms are provided for all persons sent to the country who have no invitations. To each of these houses from four to ten children are sent each week during the hot weather. These homes are selected by a Committee of the Board of Managers, whose business it is to inspect them frequently while they are in use.

These country homes often prove valuable schools in industry and thrift for the little ones, who are too often familiar only with the idleness and wastefulness that generally accompany pinching poverty.

The Association sends invalids to "The Sea-side Home for Invalid Women" and "The Children's Sea-shore House" at Atlantic City, to "The Sea-side Home for Women and Children" at Cape May Point, and to the Sanitarium.

Most cordially would we again thank the Press for keeping our work and its needs before the public. To the Railroads, Passenger Railway, and Steamboat Companies, for free passes and reduced rates; to the railroad officials for their kindness to our beneficiaries, and to The New Century Club for the use of rooms would we tender our most grateful acknowledgments.

HANNAH P. BAKER,

PRESIDENT.
